“Making Friends” is a recommended book for person who is shy in friendship, who likes to improve his or her interpersonal relationships or who wants to make a lot of friends. Many funny and exaggerated examples and comics of human behaviors are used by the author in the book to illustrate his ideas. With easy language and description, the book is easy enough for a teenager to read and to enjoy. It is inspiring and motivating to discover what you are doing wrong and to learn how easy it really is to achieve what you actually want. It equips you with the necessary social skills for life like expressing anger and blaming people in a proper way. A guide book to increase confidence about yourself in friendship!

While ladies around the world spend a lot of money and time making themselves look attractive, not many think of making their mind beautiful and young. Edward de Bono, author of bestsellers “Lateral Thinking”, “How to Have Creative Ideas”, and “Six Thinking Hats”, shares with his readers worldwide how to beautify their mind. There are treasures in this book, telling us how to listen, how to respond, how to disagree, how to differ, how to interrupt, how to be interesting, how to position yourself in a controversy... When you are digesting the book bit by bit, you are at the same time revolutionizing your mind. This book is a must-have item for those who want very much to possess wisdom before old age and get rid of impurities in their thinking.
